Shots Fired Call

On May 16th, 2023 at 12:01am, officers of the Richmond Police Department were dispatched to the 1300 Block of North "B" St on a report of multiple shots fired. Officers arrived at 12:03 am, along with units from the Wayne County Sheriff's Department and Indiana State Police. There were no persons found injured but it was evident that multiple shots had been fired.

Officers contacted the resident at 1316 North "B" St. which was determined to be the subject residence of outgoing and incoming gunfire. A search warrant was applied for and ultimately approved. The officers entered the residence and located and seized 10 firearms. The Division of Family and Children's Services was also contacted to come to the scene.

The resident was identified as 38 year old Jeremy L. Potters, of that address. The ensuing investigations resulted in Jeremy Potters being arrested and lodged in the Wayne County Jail for the criminal offenses of Child Neglect Lvl 6 Felony, Resisting Law Enforcement Cls "A" Misd, Disorderly Conduct Cls "A" Misd and Possession of Marijuana Cls. "A" Misd.

Many thanks to the other agencies that responded and assisted with this incident.

This investigation is ongoing.

Respectfully,

Michael Britt
Chief of Police
