Media Release

Scam Alert Reminder

The police department has recently received reports again of fraudulent phone calls with the phone number showing up as a known caller from the City of Richmond or the Richmond Police Department. The caller will identify themselves as a member of the police department and will tell you to avoid being arrested or having your bank account frozen you will need to go purchase gift cards or draw money out of your bank and then call the person back.

If you receive calls like this, please contact the Richmond Police Department at 765-983-7247 before sending any money. Do not call the callback number they give you, it will not be the police department.

The Richmond Police Department will never call anyone and ask for a payment to avoid being arrested.

Please call the Richmond Police Department if you have any questions or concerns.
